NOVEMBER 2020

Village News and Notes

- Council Meetings in November Regular Council Meeting will be held Monday, Nov. 16, 2020 at the Village of Holden at 7:00pm.
- Check out Village of Holden's new website <http://village.holden.ab.ca/>

Village Update

- Congratulations to Joy Zoopkow as the New Mayor and Steve Marusiak as the Deputy Mayor again this year.
- Sewer Project on East 51 Ave. is getting close to being finished. We do apologize for how long the project ended up taking as unforeseen circumstances did push the end date back.
- Now that we have seen snow this year, Please Remember that sidewalks need to be cleared of snow & ice within 48 hours of the snow falling.

Thank you to all of those who volunteered and helped with the main street painting, donating of items and supplies of the project. We appreciate all of the care and support of the residents of Holden and of those who traveled to help as well.

Holiday Season is among us so everyone have a Happy November!!!

HOLDEN LEGION BRANCH NO. 56
REMEMBRANCE DAY CEREMONEY AT THE CENOTAPH
11 NOVEMBER, 2020 AT 11:00 A.M.

The importance of a live ceremony honouring our veterans and their sacrifices is considered paramount by the Legion especially during this 75th Anniversary of the end of the Second World War.

Guidelines for a safe ceremony have been issued by Dominion Command in Ottawa, and working within the restrictions imposed, the ceremony will be conducted as follows:

1. The legion will not be open to the public.
2. Only the Colour Party will march from the Legion to the Cenotaph.
3. Only 4 wreaths will be laid during the ceremony ie The Federal, Provincial, Holden Legion and Ladies Auxiliary wreaths.
4. The names of businesses, groups and individuals who sponsor wreaths will be acknowledged and thanked during the ceremony. They will be asked to lay their wreaths AFTER the ceremony is concluded and attendees have dispersed.
5. There will be NO theatre programme.
6. There will be NO Pot-Luck lunch.

In order for us all to be safe, we request that masks be worn and physical distance maintained. We hope that by next year we will be able to return to our traditional Remembrance Day Ceremony. In these difficult and confusing times, we would like to thank everyone for their continuing support.

Please contact Ivan Hrabec 780-649-5633 for general inquiries or Aileen Kilshaw 780-977-7566 for wreath inquiries.

HAITI REBUILDING FUNDRAISER

THANK YOU !!

I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to everyone who donated used items for my Haiti ARISE fundraiser. Would you believe that 26,630 lbs of used items were collected and delivered to Value Village? That's about 12 tons of material that might otherwise have ended up in our landfill.

The landfill wasn't the only winner = $3178 was raised. This is enough to build one hurricane shelter home for a Haitian family!

A special thank-you is due as well to Elaine Cooper and The Gallery who graciously allowed me to place a collection bin on their property.

Thanks again, Holden, for your support. This is indeed an amazing community of which you can be proud!
